To the most High and Mighty PRINCE JAMES, by the Grace of GOD, King of GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE and IRELAND, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The Translators of the BIBLE wish Grace, Mercy and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

REAT and manifold were the Blessings (most dread Sovereign) which Almighty God, the Father of all Mercies, bestowed upon us the People of England, when first he sent Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the Expectation of many, who wished not well unto our Sion, that, upon the setting of that bright Occidental Star Queen Elisabeth, of most happy Memory, some thick and palpable Clouds of Darkness would so have overshadowed this Land, that Men should have been in doubt which Way they were to walk, and that it should hardly be known who was to direct the unsettled State; the Appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his Strength, instantly dispelled those supposed and surmised Mists, and gave unto all that were well-affected exceeding Cause of Comfort; especially when we beheld the Government established in Your Highness and Your hopeful Seed, by an undoubted Title, and this also accompanied with Peace and Tranquillity at Home and Abroad.

But, among st all our Joys, there was no one that more filled our Hearts, than the blessed Continuance of the Preaching of Gods sacred Word amongst us; which is that inestimable Treasure, which excelleth all the Riches of the Earth; because the Fruit thereof extendeth itself; not only to the Time spent in this transitory World, but directeth and disposeth Men unto that eternal Happiness which is above in Heaven.

Then not to fuffer this to fall to the Ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that State wherein the famous Predecessor of Your Highness did leave it; nay, to go forward with the Confidence and Resolution of a Man in maintaining the Truth of Christ, and propagating it far and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the Hearts of all Your Majesty's loyal and religious People unto You, that Your very Name is precious among them; their Eye doth behold You with Comfort, and they bless You in their Hearts, as that sandtified Person, who, under God, is the immediate Author of their true Happiness. And this their Contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every Day increaseth and taketh Strength, when they observe, that the Zeal of Your Majesty towards the House of God doth not slack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself Abroad in the farthest Parts of Christendom, by writing in Defence of the Truth, (which hath given such a Blow unto that Man of Sin, as will not be healed,) and every Day at Home, by religious and learned Discourses, by frequenting the House of God, by hearing the Word preached, by cherishing the Teachers thereof, by caring for the Church, as a most tender and loving nursing Father.

There are infinite Arguments of this right Christian and religious Assection in Your Majesty; but none is more forcible to declare it to others, than the vehement and perpetuated Desire of the accomplishing and publishing of this Work, which now, with all Humility, we present unto Your Majesty. For when Your Highnes's had once, out of deep Judgment, apprehended how convenient it was, that, out of the Original sacred Tongues, together with comparing of the Labours, both in our own and other foreign Languages, of many worthy Men who went before it, there should be one more exact Translation of the Holy Scriptures into the English Tongues; Your Majesty did never desist to urge and to excite those to whom it was commended, that the Work might be hastened, and that the Business might be expedited in so decent a Manner, as a Matter of such Importance might justly require.

And now, at last, by the Mercy of God, and the Continuance of our labours, it being brought unto such a Conclusion, as that we have great Hope, that the Church of England mall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our Duty to offer it to your Majesty, not only as to our King and Sovereign, but as to the principal Mover and Author of the work; humbly craving of Your most facred Majesty, that, since Things of this Quality have ever been subject to the Censures of ill-meaning and discontented Persons, it may receive Approbation and Patronage from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your Highness is; whose Allowance and Acceptance of our Labours shall more honour and encourage us, than all the Calumniations, and hard Interpretations of other men, shall dismay us. So that if, on the one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at Home or Abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor Instruments to make Gods holy truth to be yet more and more known unto the People, whom they desire still to keep in Ignorance and Darkness; or if, on the other Side, we shall be maligned by self-conceited Brethren, who run their own Ways, and give liking unto nothing but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their Anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the Truth and Innocency of a good Conscience, having walked the Ways of Simplicity and Integrity, as before the Lord; and sustained without by the powerful Protection of Your Majesty's Grace and Favour, which will ever give Countenance to honest and Christian Endeavours, against bitter Censures, and auncharitable Imputations.

The Lord of Heaven and Earth blefs Your Majesty with many and happy Days; that, as his heavenly Hand hath enriched Your Highness with many singular and extraordinary Graces, so You may be the Worder of the World in this latter Age, for Happiness and true Felicity, to the Honour of that great GOD, and the good of his Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

10 Pharaoh was wroth with his fervants, b and put me in ward in the captain of the guards house, both me; and the chief baker.

14 ¶ ° Then Pharaoh fent and called Joseph, and they + brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh faid unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have or, when heard fay of thee, that | thou canst estadream, understand a dream, to interpret it. 16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, faying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh faid unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river.

18 And behold, there came up out of the river feven kine, fat-fleshed, and well-favoured; and they fed in a meadow.

19 And behold, feven other kine came up after them, poor, and very ill-favoured, and lean-fleshed, such as I never faw in all the land of Egypt for badness.

20 And the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The feven good kine are feven years; and the feven good ears are feven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine, that came up after them, are feven years; and the feven empty ears, blafted with the eaft-wind, shall be f seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have fpoken unto Pharaoh: what God is about to do, he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come feven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And there shall arise, after them. feven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt: and the famine shall confume the land.

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following: for it shall be very † grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is || established by || or, pre-God, and God will shortly bring it god, to pass.

33 Now, therefore, let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and fet him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint || officers over the land, and overfaces take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt, in the feven plenteous years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land, against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land + perish not + Heb. be through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his fervants.

5 But if her father difallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows or of her bonds wherewith the hath bound her foul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their fouls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husbands house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and difallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith fhe bound her foul fhall frand.

12 But if her husband hath uttterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatfoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her foul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void, and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the foul, her hufband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her, from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her, in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which the Lord commanded Moses between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter being yet in her youth in her fathers house.

3 Understand therefore this day, that the Lord thy God is he which goeth over before thee as a confuming fire; he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath faid unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, d For my righteoufness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord doth drive

f Tit. 3. 4. 5 f Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform g the word which the LORD fware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the Lord thy God giveth thee not this good land to pollefs it, for thy righteouineis; for thou art ha stiff-necked

7 Remember, and forget not how thou provokeds the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord.

8 Alfo 1 in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, fo that the LORD was angry with you, to have de-unto me at that time alfo.

22 And at " Taberah, and at " Maffah, and at 2 Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath.

23 Likewife a when the Lord fent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

I An exhortation to obedience. 26 A blessing and a curse is set before them.

Herefore thou flialt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments alway. 2 And know you this day: for 1 speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not feen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched-out arm; 3 And his miracles, and his acts which he did in the midft of Egypt, unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots, a how he made the water of the Red fea to overflow them as they purfued after you, and how the Lord hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into

this place;

6 And b what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the fons of Eliab, the fon of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and fwallowed them up, and their housholds, and their tents, and all the || fubstance that + was in their possession in the midst of all Israel.

7 But your eyes have feen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be ftrong, and go in and possess the land whither ye go to possess it:

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land which the LORD fware unto your fathers to give unto them, and to their feed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 ¶ For the land whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou fowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and vallies, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven :

12 A land which the LORD thy God + careth for: c the eyes of the t Heb. LORD thy God are always upon it, cr Kings from the beginning of the year, even 9. 3. unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart, and with all your foul;

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due feafon, d the first d Joel rain, and the latter rain, that thou James mayest gather in thy corn, and thy 5.7.

15 And I will + fend grafs in thy f. Heb. fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest give. eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, e that e Chap. your heart be not deceived, and ye turn afide, and f ferve other gods, f Chap-

and worship them;

17 And then the Lords wrath be kindled against you, and he g shut up & Kings the heaven that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit, and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giveth you.

18 ¶ Therefore h shall ye lay up h Chap.
18 ¶ Therefore h shall ye lay up h Chap. these my words in your heart, and in your foul, and i bind them for a fign i Chap. ? upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

And Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel,

2 And he faid unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: also the Lord hath said unto me, b Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The Lord thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the nor forfake thee.

7 ¶ And Moses called unto Joshua, and faid unto him in the fight of all Ifrael, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath fworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the Lord, 8 he it is that doth go before thee, he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forfake thee: h fear not, neither be difinayed.

9 And Motes wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the fons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Ifrael.

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 And the LORD faid unto Mofes, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and prefent yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give in Numb. him a charge. And Mofes and Joshua went, and prefented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And " the LORD appeared in " Exodo the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

27 And it came to pass, at the time of the going down of the fun, that Joshua commanded, and they k took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the caves mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 ¶ And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and fmote it with the edge of the fword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the fouls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah, 1 as he did unto the king

29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Ifrael with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Ifrael; and he smote it with the edge of the fword, and all the fouls that were therein: he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof, as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Ifrael with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it. 32 And the LORD delivered La. chish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the fecond day, and fmote it with the edge of the fword, and all the fouls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Jofhua fmote him and his people until he had left him none remaining.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they encamped against it, and fought against it.

35 And they took it on that day, and fmote it with the edge of the fword, and all the fouls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Ifrael with him, unto "Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And they took it, and finote it with the edge of the fword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the fouls that were therein : he left none remaining, (according to all that he had done to Eglon,) but destroyed it utterly, and all the fouls that were therein.

40 \ So Joshua fmote all the country of the hills, and of the fouth, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the Lorp God of Ifrael ° commanded.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron, all that feemed good to Ifrael, and that feemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him: and David made Abner, and the men

2 Then Nathan faid unto David, Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass, the same night, that the word of God came to 5 For I have not dwelt in an house fince the day that I brought up Ifrael unto this day, but + have gone from have been tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wherefoever I have walked with all Ifrael, spake I a word to any of the judges of Ifrael, (whom I commanded to feed my people,) faying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou fay unto my fervant David, Thus faith the LORD of hofts, I took thee from the men that thou shouldest someter. lowing the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Ifrael;

> 8 And I have been with thee whitherfoever thou haft walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth:

9 Alfo I will ordain a place for my people Ifrael, and will plant them, and they thall dwell in their place, and fhall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more: (as at the beginning,

10 And fince the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Ifrael:) moreover, I will fubdue all thine enemies. Furthermore, I tell thee, that the Lord will build thee an house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons, and I will

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

14 But 'I will fettle him in mine c Luke house, and in my kingdom for ever, and his throne shall be established for 15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came, and fat before the LORD, and faid, Who am I, Q LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a finall thing in thine eyes, O God, for thou hast also spoken of thy servants house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.
